Expressions of opinion by public bodies or by individuals interested in the said Bill, which is republished together with its Statement of Objects and Reasons in this Gazette, should be sent so as to reach the undersigned before that date.

THE BENGAL RESTORATION OF LANDLORDS' AUCTION PURCHASED LANDS BILL, 1940.

A

to provide for the restoration of certain lands to the former tenants.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide, in the manner hereinafter appearing, for the restoration to the former tenants of certain lands which were sold for arrears of rent between the 1st day of January, 1930, and the 31st day of December, 1938, on account of the inability of the tenantry to pay such arrears by reason of the unprecedented fall in prices between the said dates ;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Act, 1940.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Provincial Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Definitions.

2. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) the expressions "holding," "landlord," "raiyat," "Collector" have the same meanings as in the Bengal Tenancy Act ;

(b) "decree" includes a certificate signed under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913 ;

(c) "petty landlord" means a landlord whose income on land is less than Rs. 3,000 ;

Application by raiyat for restoration of land sold for arrears of rent.

3. (1) A raiyat, whose holding or a portion of whose holding was sold at any time between the first day of January, 1930, and 31st day of December, 1938, in execution of a decree for arrears of rent and was purchased by the landlord of such holding and is in possession or under the control of the said landlord, may make an application to the Collector for the restoration to him, of such holding or portion.

(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall contain the following particulars, namely :—

(i) the name of the landlord of the holding by whom it was purchased ;

(ii) the date on which and the amount for which the holding was sold ;

(iii) a statement by the applicant that he is willing to pay the amount which may be determined by the Collector as the amount payable to the landlord for such restoration ; and

(iv) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) No application under this section shall be entertained unless it is made within a period of one year from the date on which this Act comes into force.

The Bengal Restoration of Landlords' Auction Purchased Lands Bill, 1940.

(Clauses 4—6.)

Procedure on receipt of application.

4. (1) When the Collector entertains an application made by a raiyat under section 3, the Collector may, if such application does not comply with the requirements of sub-section (2) of the said section, allow the defect to be remedied then and there or within a time to be fixed by him.

(2) If the defect is not remedied then and there or where the Collector has fixed a time under sub-section (1) within such time the Collector shall reject the application.

Notice to landlord.

5. If the application is not rejected under section 4, the Collector shall fix a date for the hearing of the application, and shall forthwith give notice of the application and of the date fixed for the hearing thereof and shall also send along with such notice a copy of the application to the landlord named in the application.

Objection by landlord and disposal of such objection.

6. (1) On the date fixed for the hearing of the application, the landlord may appear and object to the application on any one or more of the following grounds, namely :—

(a) that he is a petty landlord and that he has been cultivating the holding or any portion thereof by himself with his own stock or by his own servants since before the introduction of this Act into the legislature ;

(b) that he has constructed any building or other structure of a permanent nature or planted any garden on the holding or any portion of the holding before the date of introduction of this Act into the legislature and that such building, structure or garden is of such a value that the restoration of the land covered by such building, structure or garden will be unfair ;

(c) that he has excavated any tank on the holding or any portion of the holding before the date of introduction of this Act into the legislature ;

(d) that the holding mentioned in the application or any portion thereof is in the possession of a third person and that such third person is in possession of the holding or such portion on his own behalf or on behalf of some person other than the landlord under a settlement which in the case of a holding or portion of a holding sold before the 31st day of December, 1938, was made in good faith by such landlord before the date of introduction of this Act into the legislature.

(2) The Collector shall thereupon make such inquiry as he thinks fit and if he decides—

(a) that the landlord is a petty landlord and that he has been cultivating such holding or portion as mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), he shall—

(i) where the entire holding or portion sold is being so cultivated, dismiss the application ;

(ii) where only a part of such holding or portion is being so cultivated, reject the application in so far as it relates to such part and order that the application shall proceed with respect to the remaining part of the holding or portion ;

(a) the form of any application under this Act and the particulars to be contained in such application ; and

(b) the form of any notice required to be served under this Act and the manner in which such notice shall be served.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is known to all that on account of the inability of the tenantry to pay the arrears of rent by reason of the unprecedented fall in agricultural prices numerous raiyati-holdings in this Province were sold in auction between the 1st day of January, 1930, and the 31st day of December, 1938, and were purchased and taken to khas possession by the landlords. Moreover, many landlords took advantage of the delay in the establishment of Debt Settlement Boards and caused many holdings to be sold for arrears of rent before the establishment of the aforesaid Boards. This has brought untold misery among the cultivators of this vast agricultural Province where they are living from generation to generation. As a general cry has already been raised amonst the agriculturists for the restoration of these auction purchased lands to the former tenants, these auction purchased lands should be restored to the former tenants for the interest of public order and tranquillity in the country as has been done in Bihar. The Bill has been drafted almost on the lines of the Bihar Act which was passed in 1938. The principal feature of this Bill is that it has made provision for such restoration on condition of repayment by the raiyats of a considerable portion of landlords' decretal demands on instalments spread over a period of five years. Other provisions are more or less consequential.

Provided further that the court or the certificate officer shall not direct to make any payment of instalment which may fall due after the expiry of twelve years from the date on which the first instalment falls due."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Preliminary.—The opinion that real benefit can only be bestowed upon the tillers of the soil of Bengal by extending their rights not only in the political field but in the economic sphere as well is gradually gaining ground. There is no denying of it that chronic economic incapacity of the cultivators is responsible for the fact that the lands are rapidly passing away from their hands and that the cultivators are gradually turning into so many landless agricultural labourers. It has become obvious that the last general amendment of the Bengal Tenancy Act of 1885 made in 1937 has failed to solve the major economic problems of the tenants and there has been a persistent demand for further amendment of the Act for the extension of the rights of the cultivators and for the removal of disabilities from which still they have been suffering. It is with these objects in view that amendments to certain sections of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, and certain additions of sections to the Act have been proposed in this Bill.

Clauses 2 and 3.—The difference between the amount of revenue paid by the zemindars and the amount of rent paid by the tenants is becoming day by day inequitous and oppressive. The existing rate of rent cannot but be considered excessively disproportionate when compared with the revenue paid by the zemindars. This is one of the causes of the crushing indebtedness of raiyats. General economic conditions of the country also demand that the enhancement of rent should be stopped and the rent of the tenant should be reduced to the level of their economic capacity. Hence, it has been proposed in the Bill to repeal sections 27 to 37 to stop enhancement of rent of occupancy holding and to insert new section 37A to reduce the rent of occupancy tenants by proposing a more equitous method.

Clause 4.—Section 67 to be amended to reduce the excessive rate of interest.

Clause 5.—Section 68 to be amended to relieve the tenants from further economic pressure of damage as the interest proposed in section 67 is considered sufficient.

Clause 6.—Section 88 to be amended to simplify the present complicated procedure and to make a division of tenure or holding or distribution of rent payable in respect thereof an easy one and to abolish heavy mutation fee.

Clause 7.—New section 88A to be added to make it obligatory upon landlords where their number is ten or exceeds ten to appoint a common agent.

Clause 8.—That tenants are in arrears is solely due to their inability to pay the rent accentuated by heavy fall in the price of agricultural products in recent years. Hence, new section 163A to be inserted after section 163 to extend the benefit of section 37A to the tenants in respect of whose occupancy holding an execution proceeding is pending before a court at the commencement of this Act. This section is of temporary nature.

New section 163B to be inserted after section 163A for sale of a portion or portions of the tenure or holding sufficient to meet the amount under decree and to save the tenants from being deprived of the entire tenure or holding whose market price is always more than the amount decreed together with costs of suit and those of execution proceeding. Besides the tenants should not be deprived of their homestead land; hence, provision to this effect has been made in section 163B.

Clause 9.—New sections 173A and 173B to be inserted after section 173 to extend the benefit of sections 174 and 174A to the tenants whose tenure or holding has been sold, confirmed and possession delivered between the first day of January, 1930, and the date of commencement of this Act. These sections are of temporary nature.

Clauses 10 and 11.—Sections 174 and 174A to be amended to give more facilities to judgment-debtor to set aside sale and save his tenancy thereby.

Goods insurable under this Ordinance.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section—

(3) Things which, in relation to a person carrying on any business as a seller of goods, are at any time goods insurable under this Ordinance shall not cease to be goods so insurable by reason only that they are subsequently placed in or affixed to land under a contract of sale entered into by that person in the course of that business.

(4) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that goods of any description specified in the notification shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this section, be deemed not to be goods insurable under this Ordinance.

Ownership.

4. [.....] [(1) Save in so far as is otherwise expressly provided in this Ordinance, any goods shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be owned—

(a) if the property in the goods is for the time being vested in a person in relation to whom they are insurable under this Ordinance, by that person;

(b) if the property in the goods is not so vested, by any person in relation to whom the goods are insurable under this Ordinance and who is for the time being entitled, either unconditionally or conditionally, to have the property in the goods vested in him:

Provided that where—

(i) any goods would, under the foregoing provisions of this sub-section, be deemed to be owned by a person in whom the property therein is vested otherwise than in the course of a business carried on by him in British India, or who is entitled to have the property therein vested in him otherwise than in the course of such a business, and

(ii) any person carrying on business in British India is for the time being entitled to sell the goods as agent, the goods shall be deemed to be owned by the last mentioned person.

(2) Where in the course of any business a ship is being, or has been constructed under contract, and the ship or any part thereof or any goods appropriated for the construction thereof—

(a) would, apart from the provisions of this sub-section, have been deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be owned at any time by the person from time to time carrying on the business; or

(b) have at any time been accepted, in pursuance of a contract made with him, by the person from time to time carrying on the business, then, notwithstanding that they would not, apart from the said provisions, be deemed for the said purposes to be owned by the person from time to time carrying on the business, the ship and any part thereof and any goods so appropriated as aforesaid shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be deemed, in a case to which clause (a) applies, to continue to be owned by the person from time to time carrying on the business until the acceptance of the ship, in pursuance of the contract in question, by the person for whom it is being, or has been, constructed, and in a case to which clause (b) applies, to be owned by the person from time to time carrying on the business at all times between the acceptance referred to in the said clause (b) and the acceptance of the ship as aforesaid by the person for whom it is being, or has been, constructed.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2) shall apply in relation to the construction under contract in the course of a business of part of a ship, not being part of a ship which is being, or has been, constructed by the person from time to time carrying on the business, as they apply in relation to the construction of a ship—

(a) with the substitution for references to a ship of references to part of a ship;

(b) where the contract for the part of the ship is with the person for whom the ship is being constructed, with the substitution for references to the acceptance of the ship under the contract in question of references to the acceptance of the ship under the contract for the construction thereof;

(c) where the contract for the part of the ship is with any other person, with the substitution for references to the acceptance of the ship under the contract in question of references to the acceptance of the part of the ship under the contract for the construction of the part by the person for whom it is being, or has been, constructed.

(4) Where the person from time to time carrying on a business receives any money, under a policy issued in pursuance of the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme, in respect of the loss of or damage to a ship, part of a ship or goods which are deemed to be owned by him by virtue of sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), the money shall be held by him on trust for the person who apart from the provisions of those sub-sections would be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be the owner of the ship, part or goods, subject, however, to any lien or charge which would otherwise be enforceable against the ship, part or goods, and subject also to the right to retain out of the money the amount of any expenses reasonably incurred by the first mentioned person in making good any part of the loss or damage which he is liable to make good.]

War Risks Insurance Scheme.

5. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, put into operation a scheme [in this Ordinance referred to as the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme] whereby the Central Government undertakes, in relation to persons carrying on business in British India as sellers of goods, the liabilities of insuring such persons against war risks in respect of goods insurable under this Ordinance which are from time to time owned by such persons in the course of such business.

[(1A) The War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme may also extend—

(a) to the undertaking by the Central Government, in relation to any person carrying on business in British India as a seller of goods, of the liability of insuring such a person against war risks in respect of goods insurable under this Ordinance which are not owned by him but in which he has an interest arising in the course of that business;

(b) without prejudice to the provisions of clause (a), to the undertaking by the Central Government, in relation to a person carrying on any business in British India, of the liability of insuring such a person against war risks in respect of—

(i) any goods situated in British India which are in his possession, otherwise than under a hire purchase agreement, for the purposes of that business,

(ii) any goods situated in British India which are subject to a mortgage in his favour held by him in the course of that business, being in either case goods which are not owned by him but which are insurable under this Ordinance in relation to the person by whom they are owned.]

(2) The War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme shall be such as to secure—

(a) that any liability of the Central Government as insurers under the scheme is determined by a policy of insurance issued in the prescribed form and in respect of a period not exceeding the period for the time being prescribed in this behalf, by a person acting on behalf of the Central Government,

(b) that any premium under a policy so issued is payable at such rate as may be prescribed, and

(c) that the amount of any one premium payable under a policy so issued is not less than such sum as may be prescribed in this behalf.

(3) Different forms of policies, different rates of premium and different periods may be prescribed under sub-section (2) in relation to different discriptions of goods and according to the place at which and the circumstances in which the goods insured are situated.

Employment of agents by Central Government.

6. The Central Government may employ or authorise the employment of any person or firm to act as its agent for any of the purposes of this Ordinance and may pay to persons or firms so employed such remuneration as the Central Government thinks fit:

Provided that no person or firm shall be so employed unless that person or firm is either—

(a) a member of an association prescribed in this behalf, or

(b) a person who in British India has a standing contract with underwriters who are members of the Society of Lloyd's, whereby such person is authorised within the terms of such contract to issued protection notes, cover notes or other documents granting insurance against war risks.

Compulsory insurance.

7. (1) No person shall, after such date as may be specified in this behalf by the Central Government by notification in the official Gazette, carry on any business in British India as a seller of goods, unless, in respect of any goods insurable under this Ordinance which are for the time being owned by him in the course of that business, there is in force a policy of insurance against war risks issued in accordance with the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Scheme, whereby he is insured in respect of such goods for a sum not less than the value thereof for the time being:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall restrict the carrying on of business as aforesaid by any person, if and so long as the value of all goods insurable under this Ordinance which are for the time being owned by him within one and the same Presidency-town or district in the course of that business does not exceed such amount as may be prescribed in this behalf:

[Provided further that the Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to the carrying on of business as aforesaid by any person in respect of goods of any description specified in such notification.]

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees and with a further fine which may extend to one thousand rupees for every day after the first on which the contravention continues.

9. (1) The Central Government shall establish a fund for the purposes of this Ordinance, to be called the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Fund, into which shall be paid all sums received by the Central Government by way of insurance premiums under the War Risks Insurance Scheme [or by way of payments made on composition of offences under section 12A], and out of which shall be paid all sums required for the discharge by the Central Government of any of its liabilities under the War Risks Insurance Scheme, or for the payment by the Central Government of the remuneration and expenses of agents employed for the purposes of that scheme.

(2) If, at any time when a payment is to be made out of the said fund, the sum standing to the credit of the fund is less than the sum required for the making of that payment, an amount equal to the deficiency shall be paid into the fund as an advance out of general revenues.

(3) If at any time, the amount standing to the credit of the fund exceeds the sum which, in the opinion of the Central Government, is likely to be required for the making of payments out of the fund, the excess shall be paid into general revenues.

(4) The Central Government shall prepare in such form and manner as may be prescribed, and shall publish either annually or at such shorter intervals as may be prescribed, an account of all sums received into and paid out of the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Fund.

Power of Central Government to obtain information.

10. (1) [.....] [Any person authorised in this behalf by the Central Government may, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not any person has insured any goods against war risks, and, if so, for what value,—

(b) at any reasonable time enter any premises occupied by any person carrying on in British India any such business, and inspect the premises and require any person found therein who is for the time being in charge thereof to produce to him and allow him to examine such accounts, books or other documents as may relate to the business carried on in the premises or to furnish to him such information as he may reasonably think necessary.]

(2) Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of his powers under this section or fails without reasonable excuse to comply with a request made thereunder shall, in respect of each occasion on which any such obstruction or failure takes place, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(3) Whoever, in purporting to comply with his obligations under this section, knowingly or recklessly makes a statement false in a material particular, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

Refund of premiums in certain cases.

11. Where goods of any description have been insured by a seller of goods for any period, and before that period has elapsed goods of that description have ceased, by virtue of a notification under sub-section (4) of section 3, to be goods insurable under this Ordinance, the person who has insured such goods shall be entitled to a proportionate refund of premium.

Limitation on prosecutions.

12. No prosecution for any offence punishable under this Ordinance shall be instituted against any person except by or with the consent of the Central Government or an authority authorised in this behalf by the Central Government.

Composition of offences.

[12A. Any offence punishable under sub-section (2) of section 7 may, either before or after the institution of the prosecution, be compounded by the Central Government or by any authority authorised in this behalf by the Central Government, on payment for credit to the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Fund of such sum as the Central Government or such authority, as the case may be, thinks fit.]

Bar of legal proceedings.

13. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Ordinance.

Power to make rules.

14. (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules to carry into effect the provisions of this Ordinance.

(b) the forms of the polices of insurance referred to in sub-section (2) of section 5, the maximum period in respect of which such policies shall be issued, the rates at which premiums on such policies shall be payable, and the maximum amount which shall be payable as any one premium on such policies;

(c) the associations to be prescribed for the purposes of clause (a) of the proviso to section 6;

(d) the maximum amount to be prescribed for the purposes of the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 7;

(e) the form of and the manner of preparing the account referred to in sub-section (4) of section 9 and the intervals at which such account shall be published.

Dacca, the 9th March 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Dacca, the 28th February 1942.

Second Forecast of the Spring Oilseed Crops of Bengal, 1941-42.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1939-40, the area under linseed in Bengal has represented some 3·4 per cent. and that of rape and mustard 12·6 per cent. of the total area under these crops in India.)

Character of the season.—Since the submission of the first forecast, the weather and its effect on the growth of the crops have been favourable although at places drought has adversely affected the crop. Some damage has been caused by insect-pests. The present condition of the crops is fairly good.

Area sown.—Oilseeds are chiefly grown in the Dacca, Rajshahi and Presidency Divisions. In the other two divisions the cultivation is not extensive. The total area under these crops (excepting sesamum for which separate forecasts are issued) is returned at 945,700 acres this year as against 951,100 and 952,300 acres in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—From the District Officers' estimates the average outturn of the different oilseed crops for the province works out at 79 per cent. of the normal as against 67 and 66 per cent. reported respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

M. CARBERY,
Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Orders and Notifications by the Governor of Bengal, the High Court, Government Treasury, etc.

Office of the Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Bengal

NOTIFICATION.

No. 803H.—10th March 1942.—The following is republished for general information:—

OFFICE OF THE PRIVATE SECRETARY TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY.

NOTIFICATION.

New Delhi, the 4th March 1942.

No. 44-H.—His Excellency the Viceroy has been pleased to award the Indian Police Medal to the following officer:—

Bengal.

Radha Prosad Pandey, Constable No. 1493, of the 24-Parganas district.—On the night of the 20th November 1941, Constable Radha Prosad Pandey, while on patrol duty with a Head Constable, heard sounds of gun-fire and cries of alarm in the distance. He and the Head Constable ran to the place whence these sounds came, and found that a dacoity was in progress in a house there, the inhabitants of which were putting up a spirited resistance. On their arrival the dacoits fled, and although none of the inhabitants came to their assistance, these two Police officers gave chase, despite the fact that they had reason to believe that the dacoits were armed with guns. Constable Pandey succeeded in overtaking and pulling down one of the dacoits, who seriously wounded him by stabbing him in the thigh with a dagger. Despite this injury the Constable clung on to his adversary until the Head Constable arrived and felled the latter with a lathi. Constable Pandey showed great promptitude and initiative and his conduct was of a most gallant character.

This award is made for gallantry under regulation (d) (i) of the regulations governing the grant of the Indian Police Medal and consequently carries with it the allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

L. G. PINNELL,
Private Secy. to H. E. the Viceroy.

By order of H. E. the Governor,

M. O. CARTER,
Secretary to the Governor.

I suggest that in clause 2(2), proposed sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 3 should be deleted.

The advantages that the legal representatives enjoy cease with the death of a man who had a professional income. When the legal representatives are deprived of that income, it will not be just and fair to embarrass them for the tax due by the deceased.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH AND LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

Municipal.

RESOLUTION No. 709M.

Calcutta, the 23rd March 1942.

In December 1940, a representation was submitted to Government by some residents of the Bhatpara Municipality containing certain allegations of mal-administration against the Municipal Commissioners and it was directed by Government that an enquiry should be made into the allegations and that a report should be submitted to Government. Accordingly the Subdivisional Officer, Barrackpore, inspected the municipality in January 1941 and his note of inspection disclosed a very unsatisfactory state of affairs in the municipality and revealed several instances of mal-administration and irregularities in the accounts of the municipality.

2. The audit report for the year 1938-39 also revealed various irregularities, both of omission and commission, in the municipal administration. This report was received in the Municipal Office on the 31st July 1940 and, according to rule 22 of the Municipal Account Rules, a special meeting of the Municipal Commissioners should have been called as soon as possible thereafter to consider the report and to decide upon the action to be taken. The special meeting was not, however, convened till the 30th September 1940, and even then only one hour's time was allowed for the consideration of the report, with the result that the meeting had to be postponed even before the first item could be fully discussed. The adjourned meeting was held on the 12th October 1940, in the middle of the Puja vacation and was attended by only 8 out of the 19 Commissioners of the municipality. The manner in which the audit report was dealt with at this meeting was unsatisfactory and the Municipal Commissioners do not appear to have made any serious attempt to meet the main criticisms of the auditor.

3. In view of the state of affairs as revealed in the inspection note of the Subdivisional Officer and the audit report mentioned above, Government considered that there were grounds for holding that the Municipal Commissioners of Bhatpara had shown their incompetency to perform the duties imposed on them by law and in some cases had exceeded and abused their powers. But before taking any action under section 553 of the Bengal Municipal Act, Government in their order No. 1569M., dated the 18th August 1941, asked the Commissioners of the Bhatpara Municipality to submit their explanations, within two months from the date of receipt of the order, with regard to the various irregularities pointed out in the audit reports for the years 1938-39 and 1939-40 as well as the following charges brought against them in the note of inspection of the Subdivisional Officer, Barrackpore :—

(1) The cash balance of the municipality which was Rs. 98,409 on the 31st March 1939 and Rs. 98,573 on the 31st March 1940, was reduced to Rs. 20,093 at the close of the half-year ending September 1940 and on the 2nd January 1941 it had dropped to Rs. 6,917 only.

(2) The work of the Assessment Review Committee was far from satisfactory. In many cases, the Committee arbitrarily reduced the valuation made by the assessor without assigning any reason. Much of the good work done by the assessor was thus nullified and the municipality was deprived of a considerable increase of revenue.

(3) In several instances, payment was made to the contractors on the strength of bills which bore no signature of the Ward Commissioner in token of completion of the work and no signature or dated signature of the Engineer to show that the work had been measured. This naturally gave rise to a suspicion that either the work had not been at all examined before payment was made or the Engineer or the Overseer concerned found himself unable conscientiously to certify that it had been completed according to the specifications.

(4) The Municipal Executive appeared to have paid very little attention to economy or the efficient administration of the municipality. New posts were created and salaries and allowances increased without sufficient justification and furniture, cycles and rain-coats were supplied to the municipal employees without any proper sanction.

(5) The affairs of the Municipal Dispensary were grossly mismanaged by the Dispensary Committee which is composed entirely of Municipal Commissioners. The Committee, which seemed to run the dispensary according to its own will without any reference to the Dispensary Rules prescribed by Government, did not even meet regularly and seldom passed the monthly accounts. The minutes of the Committee were not recorded regularly and no cash book was maintained, all the accounting being done in the general department of the Municipal Office.

(6) The Annual Administration Reports of the municipality for the years 1938-39 and 1939-40 were not submitted by the due dates and no revised budget was framed for the year 1939-40, although heavy excess expenditure was incurred on several heads to which sanction was given by the Municipal Commissioners at their meeting held on the 29th March 1940.

4. Government have given their most careful consideration to the explanations submitted by the Municipal Commissioners which are in most cases very unsatisfactory. No serious attempt has been made to explain the principal charges against the Municipal Commissioners, viz., their mismanagement of the municipal finances, their failure to maintain the cash balance and the payments to contractors for work not certified as completed or measured. The explanations given regarding the charge of neglect of audit notes are evasive; and the failure of the Municipal Commissioners to keep a proper record of the payments made on the occasion of the sweepers' strike of 1938 has not also been explained to the satisfaction of Government. All these and several other irregularities mentioned in the inspection note of the Subdivisional Officer of Barrackpore and in the audit reports for the year 1938-39 and 1939-40 show a lack of supervision and complete disregard of the law and the rules in the conduct of municipal business in general and in the maintenance of municipal accounts in particular.

5. Further, in Government order No. 1499-M., dated the 11th August 1941, the Commissioners of the municipality were directed under section 67(1) (ii) of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932, to appoint an Executive Officer of the municipality at a very early date, with necessary sanction of Government. The Municipal Commissioners at their meeting held on the 3rd September 1941, passed a resolution to the effect that no Executive Officer should be appointed, without assigning any reasons whatsoever. Government were advised that the Municipal Commissioners had no discretion to decline to appoint an Executive Officer after the issue of a requisition under section 67(1) (ii) and that they had, therefore, exceeded their powers under the law by purporting to decline to appoint an Executive Officer. In Government order No. 2208-M., dated the 1st December 1941, the Municipal Commissioners were accordingly asked to show cause why they should not be superseded on this ground as well.

6. The Commissioners of the Bhatpara Municipality have since decided to appoint an Executive Officer but they do not appear to have taken any effective steps as yet to implement that decision.

7. After a very careful consideration of the whole matter, Government have come to the conclusion that the Commissioners of the Bhatpara Municipality have shown their incompetency to perform, and have persistently made default in the performance of, the duties imposed on them by or under the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932. In exercise of the power conferred by section 553 of the said Act, Government are accordingly pleased to declare the Commissioners of the Bhatpara Municipality to be incompetent and in default and to supersede the said Commissioners for a period of one year with effect from the date of publication of this resolution in the Calcutta Gazette.

8. Ordered that this resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette.

By order of the Governor,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This amendment is intended to abolish Sessions trials with the aid of the assessors. Anybody who has got some experience of these trials would agree that in practice this system proves of no help either to the prosecution, or the defence. Even for the judge trying the case it provides no facility in arriving at his decision. On the other hand, it causes inconvenience and trouble to the persons selected as assessors and is a useless burden on the public purse. Looking at a trial with the aid of assessors one feels that it is nothing but a farce and wonders as to how it came into vogue. But if we look into the old laws of this country we find that this institution of assessors has got a very interesting history behind. A glimpse into the early history of the administration of criminal justice in India can be had by a study of the Regulations promulgated in 1793. In that year an attempt was made to consolidate and modify all the current law and practice. Regulation IX of 1793, deals with the subject of criminal procedure and for a proper appreciation of the subject, I can do no better than quote from Article I of that Regulation, which is the same as the preamble to the present Acts, but much more explicit and historical. It says—

> "Pursuant to the Regulation by the President and Council on 21st August 1772, Criminal Courts, denominated Faujdari Adawlats were established in the interior parts of the province for the trial of persons charged with crimes or mis-demeanour, and the Collectors of Revenue who were covenanted servants of the Company, were to superintend the proceedings of the officers of those courts..... By the same Regulation, a separate and superior criminal court was established at Moorshidabad under the denomination of Nizamat Adawlat, for revising the proceedings of the Provincial criminal courts in Capital Cases, and the Committee of Revenue, Moorshidabad, was vested with a control over this court, similar to that which the Collectors of the revenue were empowered to exercise over the provincial courts. Upon the abolition of the Committee of record at Moorshidabad the Nizamat Adawlat was removed to Calcutta and placed under the charge of a Daroyha or Superintendent, subject to the control of the President of the Council, who revised the sentences of the criminal courts in capital cases. The above arrangements continued in force, without any considerable alteration until the 18th October, 1775, when the entire control over the department of criminal justice was committed to the Naib Nazim. The Nizamat Adawlat was in consequence re-established at Moorshidabad, and the Naib Nazim appointed native officers denominated Faujdars and assisted by persons versed in the Mohammadan Law, to superintend the criminal courts in various districts and to apprehend, to bring to trial offenders against public peace.

This system was adhered to without any material variation until 6th April, 1781, when the institution of Faujdars not having answered the intended purpose, the general establishment of both the Faujdars and the Tanchdars or police officers acting under them was abolished. Faujdaris court, however, continued in several divisions subject as before to the control of Naib Nazim as Superintendent of the Nizamat Adawlat, and the English Judge of the Courts of Dewani Adawlat was appointed magistrate, with a power to apprehend dacoits or persons charged with crimes or misdemeanour within their respective jurisdiction, and commit them to the nearest Faujdari Court for trial. With a view to enable Government to superintend in some degree the administration of justice in criminal cases a separate department was at the time established at the presidency under the control of the Governor-General, to receive monthly return of the sentences passed in the Faujdari Courts and for the assistance of the Governor-General in this duty, a Covenanted Civil Servant of the Company was appointed with the official appellation of "Remembrancer to the Criminal Courts". From the inefficiency of the authority of the English Magistrates over the Zamindars and other Lambardars, the administration of justice in criminal cases was much impeded whilst the Regulation which vested the magistrates with the power of apprehending officers, but without permitting them to interfere in any respects in the trials, gave rise to a new evil. The Magistrates being obliged to deliver over to the Darogha or Superintendents of the Faujdari Courts, all persons charged with a breach of the peace, however trivial, many of the lowest and most indignant classes of the people were frequently detained for a long period in prison, where their suffering often exceeded the degree of their criminality. The magistrates thereupon on 27th June, 1787, were vested with authority to hear and decide on complaints of petty affrays abusive names and other slight offences and under certain restrictions, to inflict corporal punishment, and impose fine on the offenders. But numerous robberies which continued to be daily committed throughout the country evincing that the administration of justice was still in a very defective state, and as these evils appeared to result principally from the great delay which occurred in bringing offenders to punishment and to the law not being duly enforced as well as to other material defects in the constitution of the Criminal Courts and as it was essential for the prosecution of the crimes not only that offenders should be deprived of the means of eluding the pursuit of the officers of justice, but that they should be speedily and impartially tried when apprehended, the Governor-General in Council passed certain Regulations on 3rd December, 1790, establishing courts of circuits under the superintendence of English Judges, assisted by natives in Mohammadan Law, for trying, in the first instance, persons charged with crimes or misdemeanours, and enabling the Governor-General and the members of the Supreme Council to sit in the Nizamat Adawlat (which was for that purpose again removed to Calcutta) and superintend the administration of criminal justice throughout the province. These regulations with the frequent amendments are now re-acted with further alterations and modifications".

From the above it would appear that at that time the trial in criminal courts took place in accordance with the provisions of Mohammadan Law and so the English Judge had to be "assisted by natives in Mohammadan Law". The subsequent articles lay down the definite procedure of assistance. Article XXXIII lays down:—

"The Judges of the Provincial courts of appeal are to be judges of courts of circuits in their respective divisions".

The next article says:—

"The Cauzi and Mufti of the provincial courts, shall also be the Cauzi and Mufti of the courts of Circuit in the several divisions....."

Thus it was the Cauzi and the Mufti who were to help the judge. For finding out as to what was the weight of their opinion, we will have to look into subsequent articles, Article XLVII lays down the procedure of trial. It says:—

"The proceedings on the trial of prisoners are to be conducted in the following manner. The charge against the prisoner, his confession (which is always to be received with circumspection and tenderness) if he plead guilty, the evidence on the part of the prosecutor, the prisoner's defence, and any evidence which he may have to adduce, being all heard beforee him, the Cauzi and Mufti (who are to be present during the whole trial) are to write at the end of the record of the proceedings the fatwah or law as applicable to the circumstances of the case and attest it with their seals and signatures. The Court shall attentively consider such fatwah, and if it shall appear to them consonant to natural justice, and also conformable to Mohammadan Law, they are to pass sentence in terms of the fatwah, (except in cases in which they are expressly directed not to pass sentence) and to issue their warrant to the magistrate for the execution of it without further reference or delay.. .. .." But in cases of death sentence the papers were to be sent to Nizamat Adawlat and it was not to be executed before their order.

The powers of Cauzi and Mufti who were appointed ostensibly only to help the judge were really greater than that of the judge himself. They were not to be the judges of facts only like a jury, but they had to determine the law also. This would be further clear from article L, which lays down:—

"In trial of murder, the law officers shall deliver their fatwah or law opinion upon the case according to the doctrine of Yusuf and Mohammad".

Article LII directed that in case of non-Muslim witnesses the Cauzis and the Muftis were to be asked to give their fatwah on the presumption that they were Muslims, and if the judges differed from the Muftis, they could only refer the matter to the Nizamat Adawlat. As observed in Article XLVII, there were certain sentences prescribed by Mohammadan law which were not to be enforced. In this regulation article LI provided that—

"No criminal shall suffer the punishment of mutilation".

Punishment of cutting of two limbs was substituted by imprisonment with hard labour for 14 years and loss of one limb by imprisonment for 7 years.

With the passage of time, the variation in criminal law and practice from the Mohammadan Law became greater and greater. An idea of the change can be had from the preamble of Bombay Regulation XIV of 1827. It says:

"Whereas the principles of justice require that punishment to be inflicted on criminals and offences by which these punishments are respectively incurred, should be promulgated and whereas in conformity with this object and with the enactment of the British Legislature, it has been the practice of the British Government of Bombay to apply to its subject respectively their peculiar laws, modified and amended as necessity required by regulations passed and published, the courts of justice ascertaining the native law in each case, as it occurred, by a reference to the law officer of the religion of the offender; and whereas an enactment, which should enumerate various offences, and specify their respective punishments, the same being the general result of the practice of the courts, founded on the successive exposition of the law officers consulted must to a considerable extent, secure the more steady observance of the principle of administering to individuals the law of their religions, by avoiding the probable variation in the exposition of different offences given each at the moment when the law is about to be applied, and whereas such an enactment will also combine the great advantage of superior publicity to the law, and of substituting a suitable discretion for the indefinite power conferred in numerous instances on the court by the exposition of the law officers, while it will also provide a Code easy of access for those individuals of the community to whom, as not being subject to any specific national or religious Code, of criminal law, the English law has with considerable inconvenience been hitherto applied,— the following rules are therefore enacted to have effect from such date as shall be prescribed in a regulation to be hereafter passed for that purpose."

Thus the laws were gradually changed, mostly on the lines of English laws and ideas. As an example we may quote the offence of adultery. It was considered to be a very heinous offence in the East, and under the Mohammadan Law the punishment meted out to the parties was death. In 1845, we find that a law was enacted prohibiting such punishment. Section I of Act 2 of 1845 provided:—

"It is hereby enacted that whenever any person shall be convicted of the offence of adultery by any of the courts of East India Company within the territories, subject to the Presidency of Bombay, such person shall be sentenced to fine or imprisonment or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall not be sentenced to any other punishment whatever, any law or regulation to the contrary, notwithstanding".

The second clause makes the position more clear. It says:—

"It is hereby enacted, that no person shall be admitted to prosecute any women for adultery other than the husband of such woman, and that no person shall be admitted to prosecute any man for adultery other than the husband of the woman with whom such man is alleged to have committed adultery".

This Act was intended to soften the rigour with which the persons guilty of adultery were treated under the Muhammadan Law and the customary law of the land. Under such circumstances the presence of a Qazi or Mufti could no longer be required for the trial of the cases. No doubt the English system of trial was by jury and the Qazi or Mufti could be substituted by Jury, but it was also not considered advisable for reasons best known to the legislatures of the time, and the Qazi and Mufti came to be substituted by the two assessors.

It would be observed that according to the Article XXXIII of Regulation IX of 1793, Qazi and Mufti were not separately appointed for the criminal courts, but were taken from the Provincial Courts. The relevant portion of the article has already been quoted: It says:—

> "The Qazi and Mufti of the Provincial Courts, shall also be the Qazi and Mufti of the court of circuit in the several divisions.....".

Thus the removal of the Qazi and Mufti from the criminal courts could be effected without effecting their removal from the Provincial Courts and it was so effected, and we find the change in the Code of 1861, Section 324 of the Code of 1861 provided—

> "In a trial before the court of Session not by Jury, the trial shall be conducted with the aid of assessors as members of the court".

The significant word in this section is the word "Two". It gives an indication of the substitution of Qazi and Mufti by the assessors.

Qazi and Mufti, and Hindu and Mohammadan Law officers, were also later on removed by Act No. XI of 1864. The preamble of this act is a very short one, it says—

> "Whereas it is unnecessary to continue the officers of Hindu and Mohammadan Law Officers, and is inexpedient that the appointment of Qazi-Ul-Qaozat or of City Town of Parganah Cauzis should be made by Government; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

This preamble stands in remarkable contrast with the preamble of the Regulation III of 1793, which was a Regulation to extend and define the jurisdiction of Dewany Adawlat. It stated:—

> "The many valuable privileges and immunities which have been conferred upon the natives of these provinces, evince the solicitude of the British Government to promote their welfare and must satisfy them that the regulations which may be adopted for the internal Government of the country, will be calculated to preserve to them the laws of the Shastra and the Koran in matters to which they have been invariably applied to protect them in the free exercise of their religion and to offer security to their person and property".

Any way coming back to the question of assessors, the words two or more was kept up in section 232 of the code of 1872 and also in section 284 of the code of 1882, and even in section 284 of the code of 1898. It may be expected that after an experience over this long period this farce would have been put an end to, but we are astonished to find that in 1923, the number instead of being reduced to zero was increased. The section 284 now reads:—

> "When the trial is to be held with the aid of assessors, not less than three, and if practicable, four shall be chosen from the persons summoned to act as such".

The Legislators in 1923 might have thought that by increasing their number, they would be able to make them a useful body. The number three seems to suggest that probably they thought that the judge would be helped by the decision of the majority, but in actual practice the number 3 and 4 has been no less a farce than the number 2 or more.

The increase in number has only added to the trouble of the public and increased the expenses of the State with no profit to the prosecution, to the defence or to the judge.

The abolition of assessors is overdue and it is with this object that I introduce this Bill.

Legislative Assembly Department.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly, on the 14th February, 1942:—

L. A. BILL No. 10 OF 1942.

A Bill further to amend the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1937.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1937; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XXVI of 1937.

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application (Second Amendment) Act, 194 .

(2) It extends to the whole of British India, excluding the North-Western Frontier Provinces.

Amendment of section 2, Act XXVI of 1937.

2. In section 2 of the Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Act, 1937 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words "intestate succession" the words "adoption, wills, legacies" shall be substituted. XXVI of 1937.

Omission of sections 3 and 4, Act XXVI of 1937.

3. Sections 3 and 4 of the said Act shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Muslim Personal Law (Shariat) Application Bill of 1935 was intended to apply Muslim Personal Law to all Muslims of India irrespective of clan, community or place of residence. It was in consonance with the desire of general Muslim public for the simple reason that it is considered not only to be the religious duty of every Muslim to follow that law, but in practice it is more equitable and just. It is difficult to describe what the cutomary law is—as it varies from place to place, and from community to community—but one feature of all such laws is that they give a greater control to the proprietor in the disposal of his property by way of Will and Adoption. Customary law is based more or less on Hindu Law, with this distinction that it has mostly adopted its bad points, while leaving behind, its compensating good points. The powers of the head of a joint Hindu family in respect of ancestral property are much more limited than that of a Muhammadan head of family similarly situated—as the joint family system is not recognised by the Muslims. The other feature of the customary law—equally taken from the Hindu Law—is the deprivation of females of any share in property. To-day there is a general consciousness amongst the Hindus against this inequity and the recognition of rights of the females in the family property is gradually increasing. Under the circumstances it is no wonder that the Muslims are anxious to have their law being applied to them. For example, the Cutchi Memons who were governed by Hindu Law for centuries felt the necessity of adopting the Muslim Law and at their desire Cutchi Memons Act was passed in 1920 (Act No. XLVI of 1920). It provided that if a person made a certain declaration before an authority prescribed by the Government "all his minor children and their descendants shall, in matters of Succession and Inheritance, be governed by the Muhammadan Law". It was an enabling Act, and its object was that no person should be forced to change the old system for the new one but only voluntarily. It is to be remembered that Cutchi Memons are one of those few communities in the Muslims amongst whom the customary law had got its greatest stronghold. As stated above the Muslim Personal Law Application Bill was introduced in 1935 with the intention of making the Muslim Personal Law compulsorily applicable to all the classes of Muslims. It was circulated for eliciting opinion and referred to a Select Committee which meant that the House had accepted the Bill. The Select Committee made a report with certain changes but kept the principle of compulsory application of the Act intact. When the Bill came up for consideration before the House, Mr. Jinnah gave certain amendments which were intended to leave 'adoption', 'Wills', and 'Legacies' to the option of the proprietor. In putting his amendment before the House Mr. Jinnah said:

"As I pointed out in reply to a question that was put to me on another amendment about Cutchi Memons, I think, I may inform the House—and that is my information and these are the facts that by voluntary method, by persuasive method more than half the Cutchi Memons have come under that declaration and the Muhammadan Law applied to them. We do not give up, we are only trying to apply persuasive methods, voluntary method..... Therefore, let us try this method which has proved to a great extent to be successful, but, if ultimately we find that we have exhausted this persuasive and voluntary method, and if this House then thinks that, even with regard to adoption as well as legacies, the Muslim Personal Law should be made applicable, we shall consider it. There is no giving up of anything or committing ourselves in any way".

In this way the proposed clause 2 of the Bill was split up into sections 2 and 3 of the present Act.

After sometime we find that the Cutchi Memons Act XLVI of 1920 was itself substituted by Act X of 1938, and the application of Muslim Personal Law was no longer left to the option of a Cutchi Memon but made compulsory. The Bill which ultimately was passed into law was introduced by Mr. Abdul Razak Haji Abdul Sattar—who probably belongs to that community. In the Statement of Objects and Reasons he said :

"Sufficient time has passed since the passing of the Cutchi Memons Act of 1920 and large number of people of the Cutchi Memon community have taken advantage of the same. However, there is a minority which still persists in being governed by the customary laws and that tends to complicate matters. In order to bring about uniformity, it is highly desirable that the entire Cutchi Memon community should be governed by the Muhammadan Law".

As mentioned before the Bill was passed into Act in 1938, and one of the most orthodox community so far as customary law is concerned is to-day governed by Muslim Personal Law. The very community which was kept as an example at the time of the enactment of the present law has now been converted to believing in compulsory application of Muslim Law and there is no reason why Muslim Law should not now similarly be so applied to all. As stated by Mr. Abdul Razak, I have no doubt that there would yet be a minority which may still persist in being governed by the customary law, but in the interest of uniformity and avoiding the uncertainties of customary law—many cases may be cited in which the parties have been ruined in the ascertainment of the details of customary law and the factum of its applicability to the parties—it is high time that legislation to this effect should be passed. With this view I am introducing this Bill.

It is hereby declared that it is expedient in the public interest that the provisions of clauses 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this Bill shall have immediate effect under the Provisional Collection of Taxes Act, 1931. XVI of 1931.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to continue for a further period of one year the existing rate of salt duty: to increase the rate of duty on motor spirit: to impose a temporary surcharge of 20 per cent. on all import duties other than those on salt, motor spirit and raw cotton, which are subjected to special duties, and with the exception of certain goods which have to be excluded under the Trade Agreement with Burma: to increase the postage rate on letters to one and a half annas: to increase the Central surcharge on taxes on income and to continue the rate of excess profits tax at 66⅔ per cent. subject to a concession whereby up to one-tenth of the tax will be funded for release after the war if the assessee will put in double this amount from his own share of taxed profits.

2. Clause 2 provides for the continuance for a further period of one year of the existing provisions regarding salt duty. The duty of Rs. 1-4-0 per maund on salt remains liable to the additional duty imposed under section 5 of the Indian Finance (Supplementary and Extending) Act, 1931.

3. Clause 3 provides for an increase of the excise duty on motor spirit from twelve annas to fifteen annas per gallon, which will automatically increase the customs import duty to the same amount.

4. Clause 4 provides for an increase of the excise duty on kerosene by equating it with the enhanced customs duty.

5. Clause 5 provides for an increase of the excise duty on silver by 20 per cent. so that it shall equal the enhanced customs import duty as required by the Trade Agreement with Burma.

6. Clause 6 provides for the levy of a temporary surcharge for one year only of 20 per cent. on all imported goods chargeable with customs duty except certain goods subject to special higher taxation and certain goods imported from Burma on which in accordance with the terms of the Trade Agreement with Burma no increase in customs duty is permissible.

7. Clause 7 provides for the continuance for a further period of one year of the present inland postage rates except that the initial rate for letters is raised from one anna three pies to one anna six pies.

8. Clause 8 provides for the continuance for a further period of one year of the existing rates of income-tax and super-tax increased by a surcharge for the purposes of the Central Government at varying rates on different slabs of income, and also for the imposition of income-tax on incomes between Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 per annum at 6 pies on each rupee exceeding Rs. 750 which will not be leviable if the assessee deposits a somewhat larger amount, namely, 4 per cent. of his income exceeding Rs. 750, in the Post Office Defence Savings Bank.

9. Clause 9 provides for the continuance of the excess profits tax at the rate of 66⅔ per cent.

10. Clause 10 provides for a concession to be given to excess profits tax assessees to have an amount up to one-tenth of their excess profits tax funded for their benefit provided they deposit with the Central Government double this amount. While the portion of the tax so funded will be released subject to conditions which will be subsequently worked out by Government, the assessee's share will earn 2 per cent. simple interest and will be repayable 12 months after the termination of hostilities.

11. The reasons for making the above changes have been fully explained in my Budget Speech.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Secondary Education in Bengal is at present not subject to any unified control. There is no authority with power to regulate development according to a planned scheme or to insist upon certain standards being maintained. Grants are given to certain schools but not to others. The University of Calcutta which is responsible for the standard of the Matriculation Examination has authority over the Matriculation Classes of recognised schools and a certain influence upon the non-Matriculation Classes in these schools. Expansion during the last 30 years has been extremely rapid and because of the lack of any single directing authority has been upon an unplanned basis. All educationists have recognised for over 20 years that reform was essential. The present Bill sets up an authority upon which there is representation of all educational interests. This authority has almost complete power, and it is hoped will be able to develop Secondary Education upon sound lines. The Board itself is a large body representative of all interests and in general is responsible for policy and ideals. The Executive Council which contains strong representation of expert educationists is responsible for the actual administration and executive work. Special Committees with statutory powers have been set up to safeguard the interests of special education and communities. It will be necessary to introduce a Bill for amending the Indian Universities Act, 1904 (VIII of 1904) in order to carry out the changes in control of the Entrance Examination to the University and to make possible the establishment of the Board with the powers detailed in this Bill.
